

Collaborative Design Group, Inc. Announces New Staff

MINNEAPOLIS (March 29, 2004) – Collaborative Design Group, Inc. is pleased to announce that the following professionals have joined the firm's office: Dave Kirtz, Soo Young No, Michael Ryan, AIA and Philip Waugh.

Dave Kirtz joins the firm as a structural designer with 14 years experience. He is working on the Aberdeen Condominiums on Cathedral Hill, St. Paul and Nicholson Hall Rehabilitation at the University of Minnesota. Dave has an Associates of Science Degree, Architectural Drafting & Design from Northwest Technical Institute.

Soo Young No joins the firm as an intern architect with 8 years experience. She has a bachelor of architecture engineering from Keimyung University, Daegu, South Korea. She is currently working on Nicholson Hall Rehabilitation at the University of Minnesota.

Michael T. Ryan, AIA joins the firm as a senior project manager. Michael is a registered architect with more than 24 years experience as a project manager, architect and designer. Michael's extensive portfolio includes residential, transportation, academic and institutional projects. He is currently serving as senior project manager on the Midtown Exchange Building.

Philip Waugh joins the firm as Historic Preservationist. Phil received his Masters of Science from the University of Oregon, School of Architecture & Allied Arts in Historic Preservation. He is working on the Midtown Exchange Building and the Robitshek Building Rehabilitation, both in Minneapolis.

Collaborative Design Group, Inc. is a multidisciplinary architectural, structural engineering, interior design, and planning firm located in Minneapolis, Minn. The firm offers comprehensive design services to commercial, industrial, and institutional clients.
